International Conference on Parallel Processing 2019 Industrial Sponsorship

In this August 2019, we are pleased to invite the 48th International Conference on Parallel Processing, which is the oldest international conference on parallel processing technologies, to Kyoto City in Japan as ICPP2019. ICPP has been playing the role for academic cross field to present and discuss technical papers on any aspect of parallel processing technology such as algorithm, hardware, software, device, programming, network, etc.

As everyone knows, such a major international conference is not only the best opportunity for technical discussion but also for an important communication field between academia and industry. In ICPP2019, the organizing committee cordially invite all industrial and academic organizations as the supporters for the conference. We believe that your support to the conference will strongly lead our conference toward a great success of it.

The sponsorship program includes the following options. All sponsor names/logos are shown at the top page of conference web according to the category of sponsorship.

(1) Gold Sponsorship: (JPY 500,000)
Sponsor Name/Logo printing to the give-away conference bag and an exhibition booth is provided. Up to two attendees are allowed to join the conference including the reception and banquet.
Gold Sponsorship is applied to ONLY ONE organization.

(2) Silver Sponsorship: (JPY 300,000)
Sponsor Name/Logo is shown at the coffee break drink and finger food and an exhibition booth is provided. Up to two attendees are allowed to join the conference including the reception and banquet.

(3) Bronze Sponsorship: (JPY 180,000)
An exhibition booth is provided, and up to one attendee is allowed to join the conference including the reception and banquet.

(4) Logo Sponsorship: (JPY 100,000)
Only with web page (top) display of sponsor names/logos without exhibition booth nor attendee.
This option is provided for companies where it is difficult to operate the booth or send attendee. Your support to the conference is shown at the web page.

If your organization/company is interested into these sponsorship options, please contact by e-mail with your organization/company name, sponsorship course (gold, silver, bronze or logo), and contact person's name and e-mail address, to the following address:

icpp2019-call-sponsor@hpcs.cs.tsukuba.ac.jp

Any question on the sponsorship is also welcome to send by e-mail to the above address.
